

Home Construction Financing

Dreaming of building a home with wide open spaces to call your own? At GreenStone, we can help you see it through with a home construction loan. GreenStone offers specialized financing for:

- Fully contracted or do-it-yourself projects
- Home construction
- Out building, barn, or farm construction

Whether you're building or contracting it out, you have options to choose fixed or variable interest rates, pay interest only during the building process, access flexible draws, and choose your own contractors. We think that's a blueprint worth sticking to.

With locations across Michigan and northeast Wisconsin, we're here when you're ready to talk.
